

Harris County

Library Dedication Ceremony & Open House

PRESS RELEASE

The Harris County Board of Commissioners proudly announces the dedication ceremony and open house for the new Harris County Public Library to be held on Thursday, March 29, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at 7511 GA Highway 116 in Hamilton directly adjacent to the Harris County Community Center. The new 15,000 square foot library is three times as large as the current library on North College Street and contains many amenities including an adult area, teen room, computer lab, maker space, children's area, three small conference rooms, a business center, a Board room, a 100 seat meeting space, an outside patio area, and plenty of comfortable seating to enjoy a book, magazine, newspaper, or an e-book. The new facility has high-speed Internet and after-hours Internet access in the outside patio area. The new $5.2M library was funded by SPLOST-2009, SPLOST-2014, state funds, generous donations, and other funds.

The Harris County Board of Commissioners and the Harris County Library Board cordially invite you to attend this exciting civic event.
